The attached Civil Service Commission Bulletin is forwarded for your action and preparation of a suitable reply for signature by the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence. It is suggested that you may want to explain our statutory position with regard to disclosing the numbers of our employees to an appropriate person in the Civil Service Commission, and that we might then submit a secure report within the framework of that conversation, but in general compliance with the reporting requirements
specified in the Civil Service Commission Bulletin.

BULLETIN

BULLETIN NO. 291-21

Washington, D.C. 20015
January 29, 1964
MMS:FMN:ier

SUBJECT: Special Report on the Grades, Occupations, and Percentage of Women in Higher Grade Federal Positions.

Report due February 28, 1964
Heads of Departments and Independent Establishments:

In accordance with the letter from Secretary of Labor Wirtz, Chairman of the Interdepartmental Committee on the Status of Women, this bulletin requests a report on the numbers of full-time employees of your agency in positions at or above grade GS-12 and all similar white-collar positions at comparable levels on December 31, 1963. For positions not at General Schedule or "GG" grades, include all positions paid at salaries of $10,000 or more. If you collected data on occupations by grade and sex as of October 31, 1963, you may submit this report as of that date. Detailed instructions for reporting are shown on the back of the attached sample tabulation sheet.

Reports should be submitted by February 28, 1964, to the Chairman of the Interdepartmental Committee on the Status of Women, Room 1334, Main Labor Building, Washington, D. C. 20210.

This report has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Warren B. Irons
Executive Director
